

PORT ERROLL PUBLIC HALL — 1896 —

Port Erroll Public Hall Your Group's New Home!

Space available for regular weekly bookings

Looking for a welcoming, well-equipped venue for your class, club, or community group?

Port Erroll Public Hall in Cruden Bay

has regular weekly slots available

morning, afternoon, and evening times ideal for:

- Fitness, yoga or dance classes
- Art, craft, or music groups
- Parent & toddler or after-school activities
- Social meet-ups, clubs, or workshops
- Faith or wellbeing gatherings

Regular slots now available!

Whether you're just starting out or looking to grow, our hall offers the ideal space to build something lasting.

Check our schedule online:

- Website: crudenbay.life/port-erroll-public-hall
- Email: rosemary.pittendrigh@outlook.com

Why Choose Port Erroll Hall?

- Spacious main hall (up to 120 seated / 240 standing)
- Stage with dressing rooms perfect for performances
- Well-equipped kitchen and AV facilities
- Heated, flexible layout - make the space your own
- A trusted village hub for over 130 years

What about parking?

While the hall doesn't have its own car park, there's free on-street parking nearby - just like many busy churches, halls, and venues in towns and cities.

Visitors have been coming here for over a century — and access has never been a barrier.

‘GET IN THERE’

Bring your group to the heart of the Cruden Bay community.