Under Chubb at present. • Duck Race raised £2.300, there was £120 from Lucy at Kilmarnock Arms for excess made on bouncy castles. To run another Duck Race later in year 13th September 25.
Congregational Church • Funding application has been made to SUEZ for £20,000 – awaiting decision • SSE funding has just been released application has been made • Coastal Communities Grants to be applied for by 1st June 25 • Coffee Cart owner still to get back to John Ross • Still awaiting planning permission for resilience container and Men Shed
Mission Hall • Quote has been received from Masson & Glennie Estate Agent, the building is worth £30/£40 thousand pounds. Discussion re solicitors costs etc making total profit if sold not really comparable with gain, but if necessary good to know what building worth.

Mill Park - Many thanks to Sarah Gowan for organising the music event at Brew Dog in Ellon to raise money for the All Weather Pitch. Event raised £2350, thank you letter to be sent. - A bench is being given for outside the pavilion	Gill R
Events - Many thanks to Rachel for organising the Ladies Day Event at the Kilmarnock Arms, this was a huge success. The money raised will go towards a Fireworks Event in November. Rachel has asked for help in completing the appropriate paperwork and information on insurances held by CBCA. Lisa to help with this - Discussion surrounding the events that residents want to see in Cruden Bay, Rachel had put a suggestion box at the Ladies Day event. The Cruden Bay Collective and CBCA will try and put on an event each month some of the ideas from the Ladies Day were – Murder Mystery/Tea Dance/Car Boot/Gala. - Car Boot if any interest to be held on June 21st 11am to 13:00. People will have to bring their own tables. John Roberts to be asked if he can do catering as this was a success last time. Lisa to do appropriate PR	Lisa S Lisa S
AOB - Container clear out before end of May – date set for Sat 24th May @ 10:00, all willing hands to meet at Mill Park. Will be cancelled if inclement weather. - Gordon McKay has started new website called Cruden Bay Life, Lisa is in contact with Gordon as intention is to mirror each other with directory and events so that hopefully more people can see what is being organised in the village. - Notice Board outside Post Office, the new owners are aware that this is in situ, if it cannot be present at its current location then the hope is to relocate dependent on planning permission etc – ongoing. - Dog fowling has improved since village has been immersed in doggy bag containers, many thanks to Liz Oates for supplying/filling and others who are filling these up on a regular basis, also thanks to Port Erroll Heritage Group for now supplying bags. - Gill to send e mail to Stephen Smith again re litter bins not being emptied mostly over the weekend, also about fly tipping next to recycling bins - Bunting around the Trygve Gran Memorial looking worse for wear, anniversary is on 10th June. Liz is hoping to get this replaced.	All Lisa S Gill R Liz O
